

Lions Tale Aug.29th, 2014

The Lions Club year begins with our first meeting Wed. Sept. 3rd. Meeting place and time is the same as last year with PWT doing our catering. The price of our meal will remain @ $13.00. Our speaker for the evening will be Dan Engert the Somerset Supervisor. He will give us an update on both the town and Newfane Hospital.

The cheese committee has the order blanks ready at the Wednesday meeting for you to take your orders.

The Ransomville Races are over and I understand all who attended had a great time. Thanks go to Lion Frank for getting the tickets.

Our 1st Lions shoot was a great success thanks to Lion John McDonald & all his hard work. Thanks also for the great article in the Lockport paper.

Chicken BBQ's are on the 13th and 14th of Sept. Sunday the 14th is our big cook and serve @ the Somerset Historical Sight. All members are asked to help with this big event.

The Journey for Sight is @ the Royalton Ravine on Saturday Sept. 13th. Lion Frank and Past President Rich Burley are collecting donations for this walk. Please be generous.
