Lions Tale

MEETING HIGHLIGHTS

Thank you was received from the Salvation Army

We won $250 from the Brandel Murphy Foundation Raffle

We took out an ad with Sabah and confirmed our ad in the Barker Yearbook.

Donations were made in memory of Lion Roy Plummer and Partner in Service Evelyn Capell.

March meeting is with the Boy Scouts. It is also Ash Wednesday. We expect about 10 scouts and leaders. Therefore, it will be a pizza party. Price to be determined.

SELL YOUR MARCH LOTTERY TICKETS! Turn them in to John McDonald by March 1. Drop them off at his house.

Pancake Breakfasts will be March 5 and April 2.

TICKET SALES

2 tickets to the Radio Reading Dinner on March 19 at Salvatore's are available. The club will pay. Let Lion Chris or Lion Matt know if you'd like to go.

Youngstown Lions sent tickets for March 18 raffles. $20/each.

Foundation tickets are also available. They are $100 each. Lions can go in together. For every 3 we sell, we receive a Robert Uplinger Award to give.

Lions Mission Statement

To empower volunteers to serve their communities, meet humanitarian needs, encourage peace, and promote international understanding through Lions Clubs.

Who Bounced the Bouncer? A Murder Mystery Dinner

This will be our Lions Centennial project with Newfane and Wilson. It is a fundraiser for the Olmstead center. There are various tasks that need to be done. Many of them have been broken down into jobs that would take about 2-4 hours. Help is needed to:

- Work with the caterer (menu, can they supply linens)
- Solicit Ads for the program book
- Solicit baskets for the auction
- Run the 50/50 at the dinner
- Check people in at the dinner
- Set up Friday night
- Clean up Saturday night

There are other jobs as well. Please let Margo know what you can do!
